PROCEEDINGS.

DECEMBER, 1896.

THE thirty-second meeting of the Society was held in Hamilton Hall, Columbia College, New York City, beginning Tuesday, Dec. 29, at 2.40 P.M., President Bartlett being in the chair. The reading of the records was omitted, as they had been distributed in printed form. Dr. Peters, for the Committee of Arrangements, suggested an order for the reading of papers and notes, together with rules for the session. The report was received and adopted.

At 2.50 Professor Haupt gave a note on Ps. 118²⁷. At 3.5 Professor Jastrow read on "The Name Samuel and the Stem שָׂמֹאל." At 3.35 Professor Prince gave a note on the word מֹוֹר in Obad. 7, following this with a second note on רִיזִיּוֹנִים.

A general discussion on these four papers followed, in which Professors Jastrow, Beecher, Brown, Haupt, and Macdonald participated. It was then voted, in view of the absence of several papers, that the order adopted be varied at the discretion of the chair. Accordingly, Professor Jastrow made a brief statement on the question, "Was there a Deity Jah outside of Hebrew Settlements?" Professor Brown remarked on this. At 4.20 Professor Ewell read a paper entitled, "What was the Character ascribed to God in the Early Literature of Israel?" Rev. Mr. Fagnani remarked on this. At 5.10 Rev. Mr. Barrows read on the question "Does the New Testament contain Mythical and Legendary Elements?" Professor Bacon, Rev. J. R. Smith, Rev. Mr. Haas, Professor Macdonald, Professor Bradley, Professor Ewell, and Rev. Mr. Fagnani commented on this. At 5.35 Professor Bacon read on the aorist εἰδόκῃσα, which was then discussed by Professors Christie, Burton, Thayer, and Bradley. Adjourned for dinner and social hour.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 29. — The Society met at 8.30. Professor Wright read a paper on "David's Stairs, Neh. 3¹⁵." There were remarks by Dr. Thurston and Professor Jastrow. At 9 Professor Christie read on "The Meaning of the Expression, One Body in Christ." Remarks followed by Professors Hincks and Bartlett. At 9.35 Professor Haupt read on Ps. 22¹²⁻¹⁸. Professors Gottheil, Schmidt, and Jastrow took part in the discussion. Adjourned.

Wednesday morning, Dec. 30. — The Society met at 9.50. The Council made a report favoring annual instead of semi-annual meetings.

Voted, to accept and adopt the report.

It was moved that Rev. Wm. Hayes Ward, D.D., be requested to prepare a minute to be spread upon the records and printed in the JOURNAL, expressing our sense of loss in the death of Dr. Isaac H. Hall. This was adopted by a rising vote. (See end of Proceedings.)

On recommendation of the Council, the following persons were elected active members of the Society: —

Prof. Arthur C. McGiffert, D.D., Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

Prof. Wm. Adams Brown, Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

Rev. Hiram R. Hulse, 130 Stanton Street, New York City.

Wm. R. Arnold, Ph.D., Metropolitan Museum, New York City.

Rev. Charles Lewis Biggs, 225 West 99th Street, New York City.

Prof. C. W. E. Body, General Theological Seminary, New York City.

Rev. Charles W. Homer, 73 St. James Place, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Rev. F. D. Hoskins, 432 Main Street, Hartford, Conn.

Prof. Rebecca Corwin, Mt. Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

C. W. Votaw, Ph.D., University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Professor Thayer made a report from the Committee on a School of Oriental Research. Discussion followed.

Voted, that the report be accepted, that the Society expresses its gratification at the progress already made, and that the Committee be continued, with power to take such further steps, in consultation with the Council, as may seem expedient.

Voted, that the thanks of the Society be returned to the President and officers of Columbia College, and to the local Committee, for their hospitable entertainment.

At 10.45 Professor Haupt read on Psalm 87. On this Professor Brown made some remarks. At 11.15 Professor Bradley read a note "On the translation of εὐδοκίας, Lu. 2¹⁴." Professor Bacon commented. At 11.35 Professor Burton read on "The Politarch Inscriptions," copies of which he had procured for the use of the members. At 12.05 Professor Fowler read on "The Chronological Position of Joel among the Prophets." This was discussed by Professors Briggs and Beecher.

The President, being unable to remain longer in the city, called Professor Brown to the chair.

At 12.37 Professor Bacon read a note on "The Syriac Renderings of Mark 14⁸ and parallels." At 12.40 Professor Schmidt suggested a new interpretation of עם ברית, Isa. 42⁶ and 49⁸. At 12.45 Rev. Mr. Watson exhibited an ancient Samaritan MS. dated A.D. 655 to 656. At 12.50 the Corresponding Secretary read in succession the substance of the papers from absent members, as follows : —

The Original Form of the Missing Section between

Ezra 1 and 2 (preserved in 1 Esdr. 4⁴⁸⁻⁵⁶) . . . By Dr. C. C. Torrey.

The Use of lva in the LXX . . . By Mr. J. W. Rice.

Is there a Native Metaphysical Element in the New Testament? . . . By Prof. H. S. Nash.

The rough minutes were read, and at 1.30 the Society adjourned.

MINUTE ON DR. HALL.

In the death of Dr. Isaac H. Hall, one of the most active and faithful workers and officers of this Society, the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis, and American scholarship as well, has suffered an irreparable loss. Dr. Hall passed his childhood in the atmosphere of a theological seminary, and graduated at Hamilton College, where he served as tutor, and also as assistant to Dr. Peters in the astronomical observatory. He was afterward instructor in the Syrian Protestant College at Beirut. He devoted his earlier biblical studies to the Greek Testament and the Septuagint, but soon became a pioneer in the investigation of the Cypriote inscriptions, which introduced him to the service of the Metropolitan Museum, where most of his life was spent. The fruit of his labors for that institution appears in the great illustrated catalogues of objects of Cypriote art, on which he collaborated with Gen. di Cesnola. He pursued especially the study of Syriac, taking the lead of all our scholars in this department, and publishing many texts and critical papers. It was in recognition of his Syriac studies that he was invited to attend the Tercentenary of the Dublin University, where the degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred on him. Dr. Hall received the honor of the Presidency of the American Philological Association, and was Vice-President and Director of the American Oriental Society, as well as for many years a member of the Council of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis. The careful exactness, as well as the enterprise which characterized Dr. Hall's abundant work, will assure him an honored and permanent record in the annals of American scholarship.
